Congratulations to the 2010 HIS Integrator Winners!

Team AVS has been named Northeast Region Integrator of the year by Honeywell! “We are truly honored to be selected as the Northeast Region Integrator of the Year by Honeywell. This demonstrates our true commitment to providing World Class Security Solutions to our customers, says Pete Binkewicz, Vice-President and General Manager, Team AVS.”

Regional Integrators of the Year are nominated by regional sales associates and system systems managers. Winners are selected by measuring unique attributes including the percentage of sales against access market targets, number of new Pro-Watch licenses installed, certification level, and overall end user satisfaction. Honeywell recognizes Team AVS as a true partner and are proud to support them as leaders in the security industry. Here is a list of Regional Integrators of the Year:
